Spring Queens of the past honoured

A CELEBRATION of one of the Cape Flats’ greatest traditions, Spring Queen – The Staging of the Glittering Prolletariat is on now at the Beirnac House Annex Gallery at the UCT Hiddingh Campus in the city. The exhibition showcases the history of the glittering Flats event. The pageant began in the late ‘70s for the factory workers, organized by the South African Clothing Workers Union and is still a highlight on the social calendar.

IMPRESSIONED: Denver Josephs, Fachney Abrahams and Magaret van Rooyen

CUT TO THE PAST: Cheryl-lee Cloete, Blanca Adams, Faith Adams, Nicole Moodley-Klein and Danielle Solomons

GETTING READY TO SHINE: Fazlin and Gadija van der Schyff

IMPRESSIVE: Thabo Mamile and Princess Makhetha

STYLISH: Melissa Hendricks and Noluvo Tsawe

CUTE TRIO: Mom Rozelle with baby CJ, 2, and Lucin Greff, 5, of Bonteheuwel

GREAT TIME: Kent Lingvedt and Toni Stuart

LOVELY: Zona Magalia and Porchia Salmons

CULTURE: Kim Marthinus and Chantel Briessies

GIRLS’ JOL: Bonnife Fourie, Hadiyyah Daniels and Sethu Miungu

A TIME FOR THE LADIES: Cheryl-lee Cloete, Blanca Adams, Faith Adams, Nicole Moodley-Klein and Danielle Solomons